MEMORANDUM

FROM: Frank Mantovani

SIPC CLAIMS

Enclosed is a memorandum from Mr. Eugene Licker providing information regarding the status of SIPC claims at the Lambeth, Brighton and Popham partnership levels.

K-1's AND TAX INFORMATION

I have been diligently attempting for months to obtain from Loeb & Loeb and the accountant preparing K-1's for Lambeth & Popham all of the information necessary for the preparation of the tax returns and K-1's. Early this morning Lambeth & Popham provided Crescent & Marloma with one of the two remaining missing items. Mr. Licker indicated that I should receive the remaining item, corrected non-draft state K-1's, later in the day. I did receive these K-1's early this evening.

I believe that I now have all of the information necessary to complete the tax returns and anticipate mailing out K-1's to partners by June 18.

Thank you in advance for your patience.

A century of adding value.

MEMORANDUM

Via E-mail or Facsimile

Date: June 3, 2009
To: Limited Partners of Popham, Lambeth and Brighton
CC: Stanley Chais
From: Eugene R. Licker
Re: Requests from Limited Partners

As you know, we represent Stanley Chais in all capacities, including his capacity as General Partner of the above three entities. As we have in the past, we remind you that Loeb & Loeb LLP represents Mr. Chais and does not represent you. You should seek advice from your own professionals and rely exclusively on that advice and not on what is set forth here.

Many of you have inquired about whether or not Popham, Lambeth and Brighton (the "Partnerships") intend to file claims with the SIPC Trustee. Some of you have received correspondence from the Trustee indicating that no such claim has been filed to date. The deadline for filing those claims is July 2, 2009, and the Trustee has been clear that there will be no extensions.

Although it may not be apparent to some of you, it is important to understand that there are potentially important reasons not to file a claim. Primarily, by filing a claim, the claimant (here, the Partnerships) subject themselves to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for all Madoff-related matters. In that Court, there is no right to a jury trial, all cases are heard and decided by the presiding judge, Judge Lifland, and frequently less formal procedures are employed. Although it is always hard to predict what any judge will do, many bankruptcy lawyers view submission to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in this situation as not being in the best interests of, in our case, the Partnerships. As you know, the Partnerships have been sued by the Trustee for millions of dollars. If the Partnerships file a claim with the Trustee, they will have agreed to have that multi-million dollar suit heard and decided in the Bankruptcy Court by Judge Lifland rather than the Federal District Court (where it might be heard by a jury).

Moreover, the Partnerships are all net redeemers (in other words, the Partnerships have each taken out more from Madoff than they put in). In part, that is what the Trustee has alleged in his lawsuit against the Partnerships. The Trustee has made clear that he does not intend to make any distribution to claimants who are net redeemers. Thus, it is highly unlikely that the

Limited Partners in Popham, Brighton, and Lambeth
June 3, 2009

Trustee would pay out anything to the Partnerships even if they make a claim. Please understand that the determination of whether a claimant is a net redeemer occurs at the Partnership level. The Trustee has indicated that it is not relevant to his analysis whether an individual investor (or sub-investor) is a net redeemer or not.

We recognize that these matters may not be apparent to many of you, and we also acknowledge that we represent Mr. Chais and that the Partnerships would be well served by advice on this important matter from their own counsel. We are in the process of retaining counsel for that limited purpose and expect that such counsel would be in a position to communicate to you very shortly. As always, you are strongly encouraged to consult your own legal and accounting professionals to determine your own course of conduct.
